15 CIVIL PRETRIAL ORDER

18 A jury trial has been set in this matter for October 24, 2022, beginning at 8:30 A.M. with an 19 attorney conference and jury selection to follow thereafter. A Pretrial Conference has been set for 20 September 26, 2022 at 2:00 P.M.

21 1. Pretrial Conference and Statement

22 Not less than 28 days prior to the Pretrial Conference, counsel shall exchange (but not file 23 or lodge) the papers described in Civil L.R. 16-10(b)(7), (8), (9) and (10), and any motions in 24 limine.

25 At least 21 days before the Pretrial Conference, lead trial counsel shall meet and confer 26 with respect to:

27

- 28 • Preparation and content of the joint pretrial conference statement;
- Resolution of any differences between the parties regarding the preparation and content of the joint pretrial conference statement and the preparation and exchange of pretrial materials to be served and filed pursuant to this Order. To the extent such differences are not resolved, the parties will present the issues in the pretrial conference statement so that the judge may rule on the matter during the Pretrial Conference; and

United States District Court
Northern District of California1 • Settlement.
23 At least 14 days prior to the Pretrial Conference, the parties shall file a joint pretrial 4 conference statement containing the following information:

5 a. The Action

6 (i) Substance of the Action. A brief description of the substance of claims and 7 defenses that remain to be decided.8 (ii) Relief Prayed. A detailed statement of all the relief claimed, particularly 9 itemizing all elements of damages claimed as well as witnesses, documents, or other evidentiary 10 material to be presented concerning the amount of those damages.

11 b. The Factual Basis of the Action

12 (i) Undisputed Facts. A plain and concise statement of all relevant facts not 13 reasonably disputable, as well as which facts parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial
14 record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.15 (ii) Disputed Factual Issues. A plain and concise statement of all disputed factual 16 issues that remain to be decided.17 (iii) Agreed Statement. A statement assessing whether all or part of the action 18 may be presented upon an agreed statement of facts.19 (iv) Stipulations. A statement of stipulations requested or proposed for pretrial or 20 trial purposes.

21 c. Disputed Legal Issues

22 (i) Points of Law. Without extended legal argument, a concise statement of each 23 disputed point of law concerning liability or relief, citing supporting statutes and decisions setting 24 forth briefly the nature of each party's contentions concerning each disputed point of law, 25 including procedural and evidentiary issues.26 (ii) Proposed Conclusions of Law. If the case is to be tried without a jury, unless 27 otherwise ordered, parties should briefly indicate objections to proposed conclusions of law.

28 d. Trial Preparation

1 (i) Witnesses to be Called. A list of all witnesses likely to be called at trial, other 2 than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, together with a brief statement following each name 3 describing the substance of the testimony to be given.

4 (ii) Exhibits, Schedules and Summaries. A list of all documents and other items to 5 be offered as exhibits at the trial, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, with a brief 6 statement following each describing its substance or purpose and the identity of the sponsoring 7 witness. Unless otherwise ordered, parties will indicate their objections to the receipt in evidence 8 of exhibits and materials lodged and that counsel have conferred respecting such objections.

9 (iii) Estimate of Trial Time. An estimate of the number of court days needed for 10 the presentation of each party's case, indicating possible reductions in time through proposed 11 stipulations, agreed statements of facts, or expedited means of presenting testimony and exhibits.

12 (iv) Use of Discovery Responses. Counsel shall cite possible presentation at trial 13 of evidence, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, through use of excerpts from 14 depositions, interrogatory answers, or responses to requests for admission. Counsel shall indicate 15 any objections to use of these materials and that counsel has conferred respecting such objections.

16 (v) Further Discovery or Motions. A statement of all remaining discovery or 17 motions, including motions in limine.

18 e. Trial Alternatives and Options

19 (i) Settlement Discussion. A statement summarizing the status of settlement 20 negotiations and indicating whether further negotiations are likely to be productive.

21 (ii) Consent to Trial Before a Magistrate Judge. A statement whether reference of 22 all or part of the action to a master or magistrate judge is feasible, including whether the parties 23 consent to a court or jury trial before a magistrate judge, with appeal directly to the Ninth Circuit.

24 (iii) Amendments, Dismissals. A statement of requested or proposed amendments 25 to pleadings or dismissals of parties' claims or defenses.

26 (iv) Bifurcation, Separate Trial of Issues. A statement of whether bifurcation or a 27 separate trial of specific issues is feasible and desired.

1 2. Witnesses

2 a. Jury Trials. The Pretrial Conference Statement shall include the witness list 3 required in part by 1(d)(i) above. In addition, in the case of expert witnesses, the summary shall 4 clearly state the expert's theories and conclusions and the basis therefore and shall be 5 accompanied by a curriculum vitae; if the expert has prepared a report in preparation for the 6 testimony, a copy thereof shall be furnished to opposing counsel. Witnesses not included on the 7 list may be excluded from testifying.

8 b. Non-Jury Trials. In non-jury cases, any party may serve and lodge with the Court a 9 written narrative statement of the proposed direct testimony of each witness under that party's 10 control in lieu of a summary. Each statement shall be marked as an exhibit and shall be in a form 11 suitable to be received into evidence.

12 3. Jury Instructions

13 a. Joint Set of Instructions. The parties shall jointly prepare a set of jury instructions, 14 and shall file the proposed instructions at least fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference. The 15 submission shall contain both agreed upon instructions (which shall be so noted), and contested 16 instructions, all in the order in which they should be read to the jury. Where contested instructions 17 are included, they should be annotated both with the proponent's authority for seeking the 18 instruction and the opponent's reason for opposition. Counsel shall deliver to Chambers a copy of 19 the joint submission on a CD/DVD in Word format. The label shall include the case number and a 20 description of the documents.

21 b. Substance and Format of Instructions. The instructions shall cover all substantive 22 issues and other points not covered by the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions. Each 23 requested instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page and citations to the authorities upon 24 which the instruction is based shall be included. Instructions shall be brief, clear, written in plain 25 English, and free of argument. Pattern or form instructions shall be revised to address the 26 particular facts and issues of this case.

27 c. Preliminary Statement and Instructions. If the parties wish to have a preliminary 28 statement read to the jury, and/or preliminary instructions given to the jury, they shall jointly

1 prepare and file the text of the proposed preliminary statement and/or preliminary instructions at 2 least fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference.

3 d. Voir Dire and Verdict Forms. Each party shall file proposed questions for jury voir 4 dire and a proposed Form of Verdict at least fourteen days prior to the Pretrial Conference.

5 4. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

6 In non-jury cases, each party shall file at least fourteen days prior to the Pretrial 7 Conference proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law on all material issues. The Court 8 requests that the parties hyperlink each proposed Finding of Fact to any supporting evidence.
9 Proposed Findings shall be brief, written in plain English, and free of pejorative language, 10 conclusions and argument. Parties shall deliver to Chambers copies of Proposed Findings of Fact 11 and Conclusions of Law on a CD/DVD in Word format, with a label including the name of the 12 case, the case number and a description of the submission.

13 5. Exhibits

14 a. Provide Copies of Exhibits to Other Parties. Each party shall provide every other 15 party with one set of all proposed exhibits, charts, schedules, summaries, diagrams, and other 16 similar documentary materials to be used in its case in chief at trial, together with a complete list 17 of all such proposed exhibits. Voluminous exhibits shall be reduced by elimination of irrelevant 18 portions or through the use of summaries. Each item shall be pre-marked with a trial exhibit 19 sticker (“Trial Exhibit No. __”), not deposition exhibit label, and defendant’s exhibit numbers shall 20 be sequenced to begin after plaintiff’s exhibit numbers. If there are numerous exhibits, they 21 should be provided in three-ring binders with marked tab separators. All exhibits that have not 22 been provided as required are subject to exclusion.

23 b. Stipulations re Admissibility. At least fourteen days prior to the Pretrial 24 Conference, the parties shall make a good faith effort to stipulate to exhibits’ admissibility. If 25 stipulation is not possible, the parties shall make every effort to stipulate to authenticity and 26 foundation absent a legitimate (not tactical) objection.

27 c. Objections to Exhibits. In addition to the exhibit list, counsel shall confer with 28 respect to any other objections to exhibits in advance of the Pretrial Conference. Each party shall

1 file a statement briefly identifying each item objected to, the grounds for the objection, and the 2 position of the offering party at least fourteen days prior to the date set for the Pretrial Conference.

3 d. Provide Copies of Exhibits to Court. One set of exhibits shall be provided to the 4 Court in Chambers on the Friday prior to the trial date, in binders, marked, tabbed, and indexed in 5 accordance with Local Rule 16-10(b)(7). Exhibits shall be identified as follows:

6	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7	NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
8	TRIAL EXHIBIT 100
10	CASE NO. _____
11
12	DATE ENTERED_____
13
14	BY _____ DEPUTY CLERK
15

16 Blocks of numbers shall be assigned to fit the needs of the case (e.g., Plaintiff has 1-100, 17 Defendant has 101-200). The parties shall not mark duplicate exhibits (e.g., plaintiff and 18 defendant shall not mark the same exhibit; only one copy of the exhibit shall be marked).

19 e. Witness Binders. If all of the exhibits in a case do not fit in one binder, then the 20 parties shall prepare a witness binder for each witness that will testify regarding three or more 21 exhibits.

22 f. Disposition of Exhibits after Trial. Upon the conclusion of the trial, each party 23 shall retain its exhibits through the appellate process. It is each party's responsibility to make 24 arrangements with the Clerk of Court to file the record on appeal.

25 6. Motions In Limine

26 Any party wishing to have motions in limine heard prior to the commencement of trial 27 must file them at least fourteen days prior to the date set for the Pretrial Conference. All motions 28

United States District Court
Northern District of California

1 in limine shall be contained in one document, limited to 25 pages pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-2(b), 2 with each motion listed as a subheading. Opposition to the motions in limine shall be contained in 3 one document, limited to 25 pages, with corresponding subheadings, and shall be filed at least 4 seven days prior to the Pretrial Conference. No reply papers will be considered. The motions will 5 be heard at the Pretrial Conference or at such other time as the Court may direct. Nothing in this 6 provision prevents a party from noticing its motions in limine regularly for hearing on or prior to 7 the final date for hearing dispositive motions. No leave to file under seal will be granted with 8 respect to motions in limine.

9 7. Other Pretrial Matters

10 a. Status Conferences. Any party desiring to confer with the Court may, upon notice 11 to all other parties, arrange a conference through the Courtroom Deputy, Jean Davis, at 415-522-12 2077 or whocrd@cand.uscourts.gov.

13 b. Settlement Conferences. Parties wishing to arrange a settlement conference before 14 another judge or magistrate judge may do so by contacting the Courtroom Deputy.

15 c. Daily Transcripts. Should a daily transcript and/or realtime reporting be desired, 16 the parties shall make arrangements with Rick Duvall, Court Reporter Supervisor, at 415-522-17 2079 or Richard_Duvall@cand.uscourts.gov, at least seven calendar days prior to the trial date.

18 8. Trial Matters

19 a. The normal trial schedule will be from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (or slightly longer to 20 finish a witness) with two fifteen minute breaks. Trial is usually held from Monday through 21 Friday.

22 b. The Court will set fixed time limits for each side at the Final Pretrial Conference.

23 c. Expert witnesses are limited to the scope of their expert reports on direct 24 examination. F.R.C.P. 26(a)(2) and 37(c).

25 d. Parties must meet and confer to exchange any visuals, graphics or exhibits to be 26 used in opening statements. Unless otherwise agreed, the exchange must occur no later than 27 Wednesday before the trial. Any objections not resolved must be filed in writing by Thursday 28 before trial. The parties shall be available by telephone Friday before trial to discuss the issue

1 raised with the Court.

2 e. The parties shall disclose the witnesses whom they will call at trial on any given 3 day by at least 2:00 p.m. the court day before their testimony is expected. Failure to have a 4 witness ready to proceed at trial will usually constitute resting.

5 f. The Court takes a photograph of each witness prior to the witness's testimony.

6 g. Other than a party or party representative, fact witnesses are excluded from the 7 courtroom until they are called to testify, and may not attend in the gallery until their testimony is 8 complete.

9 h. The Court does not typically allow bench conferences. If there are matters that 10 need to be raised with the Court outside the presence of the jury, the parties should raise them in 11 the morning before trial or during recess. With advance notice, the Court is usually available at 12 7:30 a.m. to address such matters.

13 9. Miscellaneous

14 a. Please DO NOT call Chambers. If you need to contact the Courtroom Deputy, 15 please call (415) 522-2077 and leave a message if the deputy is not available, or email 16 whocrd@cand.uscourts.gov.

17 b. Copies. Each document filed or lodged with the Court must be accompanied by a 18 three-hole punched copy for use in the Judge's chambers. In addition, one copy of the witness and 19 exhibit lists should be furnished to the court reporter.
